Do I need a (DVLA) V5C document to sell a car to someone who wants to export it out of the UK? Yes you need it. First, most people won't buy a car without the V5. However the V5 isn't proof of ownership and a simple handwritten receipt is legally fine to transfer ownership. However, you need to send off your bit of the V5 in order that you don't get all the paring and speeding fines, etc..
