Jan 24, 2019. By Jeff Thomson. I have always found the phrase “finance for non-financial managers ” misleading. To me, it implies there is a great wall that divides finance from operations (which is what “non” financial really means—who wishes to be labeled as “non” anything)? The phrase is archaic and may have applied back when finance professionals were viewed solely as bean counters, a pure counter of wealth versus helping to create wealth and influence key business ...
