Global Governance Why What Whither

In Global Governance: Why? What? Whither? he presents what he sees as the "essence of the problem of global governance," which he defines as the extent to which "the evolution of intergovernmental institutions, and the forms of collaboration which they engage, lags well behind the emergence of collective problems with trans-border, especially global, dimensions" (2). His goal is two-fold: First, he wants to identify the specific gaps which exist between the way global governance ...
