For children under 10 or 11, usually any number of simple, common songs are a great bet. "You Are My Sunshine," "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," and "Amazing Grace" are some of my favorites to teach students. For kids 12 and up, it's good to get them connected with the musicians that they are passionate about. Use Google to help them find the chords to songs by their favorite artists.

So You've Just Got Your First Ukulele

My daughters have just turned 4 and 6 so I wanted a very, very simple child-friendly Uke book we could use as a family. This is about as simple as it gets and while the kids are not yet truly fluent readers with adult guidance they've been able to go through it exploring the concept of frets, notes, chord and rhythms.
