The PADI manual I received is dated 1988. It did not come with the dive planner as the picture displays. Condition of the manual is not as described "Like New - Near perfect". The actual condition is more accurately used - good, at best. Due mostly its age of 15 years it is nothing like new, certainly not the information in it.

I am torn between reviewing PADI and the material. The material is informative, short, and setup like the Open Water manual in that you have chapters, with knowledge reviews at the end, and during the chapter the book emphasizes important points to note (these points end up being the basis of the questions for the knowledge review).
