Sorry. is kind of sorry. Sorry: The wretched tale of Little Stevie Wright by Jack Marx. A review: This is an odd book. My gut reaction to it is distaste. Marx paints both himself and Wright as untrustworthy junkies — which is most likely true — but in doing so he expends a lot of words on himself — for a biography, it's remarkably autobiographical. Whether this reflects an inability to get much useful material out of Wright, or rampant ego on the part of the author, it's hard to tell.
