Home to the army's Vietnam headquarters, Long Binh was, in the words of one resident soldier, "a virtual REMF citadel." The shooting war was far away, and soldiers stationed at the post had plenty of time on their hands. To keep them busy, military authorities provided a full slate of recreational opportunities.

Easy Living in a Hard War: Behind the Lines in Vietnam

You call yourself a REMF but anyone stationed in Saigon was subject to be on the front lines as quickly as anyone else "in country" just by being in the wrong place at the wrong time when Victor Charley wanted to show the world how vulnerable folks in "secure" Saigon really were.
