Two kids growing up in Queens, New York, Paul and Artie, met in sixth grade and became best friends. The radio in those days was their gateway to music. The two boys would spend hours listening to songs and singing to them until they had perfected the beat and the rhythm. Paul and Artie both realized that there was a harmony that they could both uniquely create together.

When Paul met Artie | Stacking Books

Paul and Artie are contemporaries of mine. Well, I might be three or four years older, but basically we're contemporaries who grew up with the music and societal mores of the 1950's. By the time these two began to make waves (though they had splashed around quite a bit prior) in the music world, I was engulfed in the busy "mommy" world of raising children and not really into the "music scene" of the time
